

UNIPOLSAI AND THE DUCATI TEAM TOGETHER FOR THE NEXT TWO MOTOGP SEASONS

The partnership between the Unipol Group insurance company and the Borgo Panigale-based constructor has been renewed for the 2019 and 2020 MotoGP World Championships

Bologna, 18 January 2019

UnipolSai Assicurazioni has officially announced the 2-year extension of its partnership with Ducati which will see it act as official sponsor of Ducati Corse for the 2019 MotoGP World Championships, which begin on 10 March in Losail in Qatar, as well as for the 2020 season.

The agreement with the Ducati team will see the UnipolSai logo appear on the tail end of the two Ducati bikes ridden by the runner-up in last year's MotoGP championships, Andrea Dovizioso, and newcomer Danilo Petrucci. The logo will also be visible on the suits of the riders, their hats and, new for this year, also on the Team's uniforms, as well as on various other Ducati Corse materials present in the paddock during the 19 races and official testing.

Alberto Federici, Head of Corporate Communication and Media Relations at the Unipol Group, commented: "After two seasons UnipolSai is delighted to renew its partnership with Ducati Corse for both the 2019 and 2020 MotoGP championships. The passion and commitment to innovation with which we are associated will once again appear side by side at all circuits over the next 2 seasons of the Moto GP world championships".
