

UNIPOLSAI ONCE AGAIN ALONGSIDE THE DUCATI TEAM IN THE 2021 MOTOGP SEASON

The partnership in the 2021 MotoGP World Championship between the Unipol Group insurance company and the Borgo Panigale manufacturer has been confirmed for the fifth consecutive year

Bologna, 10 February 2021

UnipolSai Assicurazioni is pleased to announce that the partnership that will see it as the official sponsor of Ducati Corse at the 2021 MotoGP World Championship starting in Losail, Qatar, next 28 March has been formalised.

Thanks to the agreement with the Ducati Team, the UnipolSai brand will be visible on the tail of the two red bikes from Borgo Panigale, which will be hitting the race track with a new pair of riders this year: the Australian Jack Miller and the Italian Francesco Bagnaia. The brand will also feature on the riders' suits, caps, team uniforms and on several other Ducati Corse accessories inside the paddock for each of the 19 races scheduled and for the official testing sessions.

Vittorio Verdone, Unipol Group Corporate Communication and Media Relations Director, stated: "This is our fifth consecutive season 'riding' the Ducati Team Desmosedici GP. This shows UnipolSai's attachment to Ducati Corse and that we share the values, passion and ability for innovation that have always set both of our companies apart from the rest, to always be one step ahead".

"Our partnership with UnipolSai has lasted with mutual satisfaction for five years now, which is indicative of the relationship of trust tying together these two important Italian companies. The new fascinating challenge we are about to face will witness our bikes and riders once again bringing the UnipolSai brand to the race track with the aim of playing a leading part in the 2021 MotoGP Championship", concluded Paolo Ciabatti, Ducati Corse Sporting Director.
